October Meeting

Please join us on October 13th for our next meeting. Gathering time is 9:15 a.m. followed by the business meeting at 9:30 a.m.

Mary Jackson from Piper Music in Bellingham will share a presentation on newly published music at 10:30 a.m. Please come and support one of our favorite local music businesses and sponsors!

Please call or email our host ahead of the meeting to RSVP your attendance so she can have a better idea for seating and refreshments.

Location:

Sue Van Nortwick
19885 Burkland Road
Mount Vernon
(360) 424-4117

Don't forget: To provide more opportunities to discuss teaching in general we will have designated meeting time to share thoughts on various music teaching topics.

This month's topic is:

"How do you write down assignment instructions so students will actually read and follow them when practicing?"

We'd love to hear your ideas!

Adjudications Update

Be thinking about the number of students you plan to enter in adjudications this spring.

Numbers need to be submitted to the adjudication committee on or before November 1st. This information is used to plan the correct number of days/hours needed to accommodate participating students.

Tickets are still available for
The Sanford-Hill
Piano Series at WWU

Jeanine Jacobson Workshop

WSMTA-Bellingham Branch cordially invites you to our October 31st workshop featuring Jeanine Jacobson, former faculty member at California State University in Northridge and author of two recently published books “Professional Piano Teaching” books 1 & 2. Jeanine’s topics will be “Sequencing Repertoire”, how to select pieces that are at the appropriate level, meet the needs of the particular student and provide sufficient challenge and “The Five Ps” for selecting good pieces and assuring efficient and effective learning.

Please see our attached flyer for details. The workshop will be held at Piper Music which is located at 2512 Meridian Street in Bellingham.
